Dear Friends & Supporters,

Good afternoon (or morning, or evening -- recipients of the newsletter span all 24 time zones)! This short update is to let you know about a free podcast (next section), as well as to admit that I have been defeated, finally capitulating to one of the electronic temptations of our age.

A CHRISTIAN RESPONSE TO THE CURRENT GLOBAL FINANCIAL CRISIS

Yesterday I uploaded a podcast which I hope will be of interest. It is my response to the current financial crisis. Men and women of faith need to be grounded in the Word of God, if they are to think through the issues and respond in a biblical way. In addition to the lesson, you will find complete notes and further reading suggestions. Click HERE.

At long last, after years of resistance, I've capitulated. Today Douglas Jacoby was inducted into the Facebook's famous circle of friends. My teenage children, who are far more techno-savvy than their father, helped me get set up! (Note: It would be helpful if people didn't use Facebook for Bible questions. Instead, they should be directed here. Thanks!) Connection is good.

All for now...

Thanks for your prayers for this ministry, and even for our local discussion group. (The first get-together went very well. The theme of the second is "Crime and Punishment.") This week our local AIM session will take place in Atlanta -- five days on Old Testament Survey and Interpretation. Our guest speaker is Professor Tom Olbricht. Next week I head to Cambridge, then Nashville, and then to South America in early March...

Yours sincerely,
Douglas
