Dear Friends and Supporters,

Greetings from Atlanta. Hopefully all of us have been growing spiritually this summer, making the most of the opportunities the Lord has given us (Ephesians 5:16). As the earth seems to throb with unnatural convulsions, we pray for victims of this summer's storms, earthquakes, famines, rockslides, fires, and floods. One place is submerged under water; another (like our Georgia) continues to face drought. Spiritually speaking, though, there need be no drought (Amos 8:11-12; Jeremiah 17:8). Opportunities to study God's word and learn about his kingdom are ample. That's what this short newsletter is about.

New Testament Studies

How is your Bible reading going? Need some ideas? Would you appreciate some fresh thoughts?

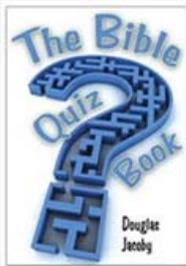

Every day in 2008 there's been a study from the New Testament, a "quiet time," at www.douglasjacoby.com. Through the course of the year we're studying all 27 N.T. books, and between September and November our focus is Luke and Acts. That's one quarter of the N.T. We started only yesterday, so why not follow along? At the bottom of the homepage is the link to the Daily Bible Studies.

Early Church History Weekend

In less than two weeks we'll host an Early Church History weekend (details). Nearly 150 people are converging on Atlanta from North American and Europe. The conference features David Bercot, Steve Staten, and others. "Those who cannot learn the lessons of history are doomed to repeat it," and with the famous dictum in mind we're eager to learn! (There are still spaces left.)

New Book

IPi has produced a new book, and we're excited about it. It will push us to think and keep us sharp. (And it's fun!) The Bible Quiz Book costs $10, and is ready to ship within two weeks. To order, click on the image:

May we all continue to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 3:17).

Yours,

Douglas Jacoby
