JESUS CHRIST:
LEGEND, LIAR, LUNATIC or LORD?

North River Church of Christ
Douglas Jacoby
When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”

They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

“But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

—Matthew 16:13-15
C. S. Lewis on the options about Jesus

A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic – on a level with the man who says he is a poached egg – or else he would be the Devil of hell. You must make your choice. Either he was, and is, the Son of God: or else a madman or something worse. You can shut Him up for a fool; you can spit at Him and kill Him as a demon; or you can fall at His feet and call Him Lord and God. But let us not come with any patronising nonsense about him being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to.

I am the light (Jn 8:12).
I’ve always existed (8:58).
I’ve never sinned (8:46).
I’m the only way to God (14:6).
I’m coming again to judge the earth (5:22).
The Scriptures are written about me (5:39).
I bring fullness of life to all those who follow me (10:10).

I forgive sins (Mk 2:10).
I have all authority (Mt 28:18).
He who rejects me rejects God himself (Lk 10:16).

The Bible is written about me.
I am the light. (I travel at “c.”)
I forgive sins. (Don’t cross me!)
I’ve always existed and I always will.
I’ll coming again to judge the earth.
   (Whoever can’t explain $E = MC^2$ is doomed.)
I’ve never sinned. (Those pictures of me smoking were faked!)
I have all authority on earth and in space—relatively speaking.
BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVE: HISTORICITY
Peter (64 AD):

We did not follow cleverly invented stories when we told you about the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

2 Pet 1:16
John (90 AD):

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched—this we proclaim concerning the Word of life... We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard...

1 John 1:1-3
And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith. More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead... And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins... If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men.

LITERARY EVIDENCE
“On the eve of the Passover they hanged Yeshu [Jesus]. Let anyone knowing anything in his defense come forward and plead for him. But they found nothing in his defense and hanged him on the eve of the Passover.”

– Babylonian Talmud, Sanhedrin 43a

“What advantage did the Athenians gain from putting Socrates to death? Famine and plague came upon them as a judgment for their crime. What advantage did the men of Samos gain from burning Pythagoras? In a moment their land was covered with sand. What advantage did the Jews gain from executing their wise King? It was just after that their Kingdom was abolished…”
“But all human efforts, all the lavish gifts of the emperor, and the propitiations of the gods did not banish the sinister belief that the conflagration was the result of an order. Consequently, to get rid of the report, Nero fastened the guilt and inflicted the most exquisite tortures on a class hated for their abominations, called Christians by the populace. Christus, from whom the name had its origin, suffered the extreme penalty during the reign of Tiberius [14-37 AD] at the hands of one of our procurators, Pontius Pilatus, and a most mischievous superstition thus checked for the moment, again broke out not only in Judea, the first source of the evil, but even in Rome, where all things hideous and shameful from every part of the world find their center and become popular.”
“Accordingly, an arrest was first made of all who pleaded guilty; then, upon their information, an immense multitude was convicted, not so much of the crime of firing the city, as of hatred against mankind. Mockery of every sort was added to their deaths. Covered with the skins of beasts, they were torn by dogs and perished, or were nailed to crosses, or were doomed to the flames and burnt, to serve as a nightly illumination when daylight had expired. Nero offered his gardens for the spectacle, and was exhibiting a show in the circus, while he mingled with the people in the dress of a charioteer or stood aloft on a car. Hence, even for criminals who deserve extreme and exemplary punishment, there arose a feeling of compassion; for it was not, as it seemed, for the public good, but to glut one man’s cruelty, that they were being destroyed.”

—Annals xv. 44
“Since the Jews constantly made disturbances at the instigation of Chrestus, Claudius [41-54 AD] expelled them from Rome.”

– Claudius 25:14; cf. Acts 18:2

Consequuntur idem. Tempore iter cumeode dum diocese sustar agebamus nobis fecit quo aestatem remos tanta. Alquantulum ille pro cesserat. Interim imperagere publicum plenamilitantibus, uiri fiscalis reedclauen ebat. Sed ubi marantium inueste hispidam gro
“In the meantime, the number of the Christians being now very large, it happened that Rome was destroyed by fire... Afterwards, too, their religion was prohibited by laws which were enacted; and by edicts openly set forth it was proclaimed unlawful to be a Christian. At that time Paul and Peter were condemned to death, the former being beheaded with a sword, while Peter suffered crucifixion.” — Chronicle ii. 29
About this time lived Jesus, a man full of wisdom, if indeed one may call him a man. For He was the doer of incredible things, and the teacher of such as gladly received the truth. He thus attracted to himself many Jews and many of the Gentiles. He was the Christ. On the accusation of the leading men of our people, Pilate condemned Him to death upon the cross; nevertheless those who had previously loved him still remained faithful to Him. For on the third day he again appeared to them living, just as, in addition to a thousand other marvelous things, prophets sent by God had foretold. And to the present day the race of those who call themselves Christians after Him has not ceased.

But false prophets arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. These false teachers will infiltrate your midst with destructive heresies, even to the point of denying the Master who bought them. As a result, they will bring swift destruction on themselves. And many will follow their debauched lifestyles. Because of these false teachers, the way of truth will be slandered. And in their greed they will exploit you with deceptive words. Their condemnation pronounced long ago is not sitting idly by; their destruction is not asleep. —2 Peter 2:1-3

Now Thomas... one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe it."
A week later… Jesus came and stood among them… Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe!”

Thomas said to him, “My Lord and my God!”

“Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say?”

—Luke 6:46
“Jesus is Lord” ⇒ I’m not.

- Raw egoism: Everyone should do what is in my interests.

- Comfortable religion: Even if the universe doesn’t revolve around me, I still want a religion that still allows me to think I’m okay as I am.
As Paul discoursed on righteousness, self-control and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and said, “That's enough for now! You may leave. When I find it convenient, I will send for you.”

— Acts 24:25
The Gospel of Convenience

Church is a democracy—just like the universe. God and all people are equals.

It’s wrong to demand obedience to the gospel. Even a strong suggestion is out of place. Just follow your own heart. In your own time. When it’s convenient, that is.

Churches that make anyone feel uncomfortable have no right to exist. We’re all going to heaven, even if we aren’t living holy lives.
Jesus answered, “I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit.” —John 3:5
“Whoever puts his hand to the plow and looks back is not fit for service in the kingdom of God.”
“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”
